

Speaker 1: My healthcare coverage protects my wife and my kids. But our family is a little bigger than that. We're covered for most of what we need for healthcare, but our dog isn't. And unexpected visits to the vet can be stressful, not to mention really expensive, and that's not in our budget. That's [Get protection against unexpected emergencies.] why Pet Insurance can be so important. It helps alleviate the worry and costs of emergency or routine visits to the vet. When Rocky started limping when we were on vacation, we were worried and far from our regular office. We didn't know where we'd go or how much it would cost. With Pet Insurance, Rocky's sprain turned out to be no big deal. His X-rays [X-rays] were covered no matter which vet we went to. Plus, [Visit any vet] Pet Insurance would help [Illness] pay for things like illness or [Surgery] surgery if they came up. I feel more comfortable and confident that my [Feel more confident with Pet Insurance.] whole family and our budget is protected thanks to my MetLife Pet Insurance. And you can too. Enroll today.
